Advancing the use of research in education across Europe
9-10 May 2012

WELCOME!

EIPPEE project 2012 conference

Building on the first EIPPEE project

The EIPEE Project

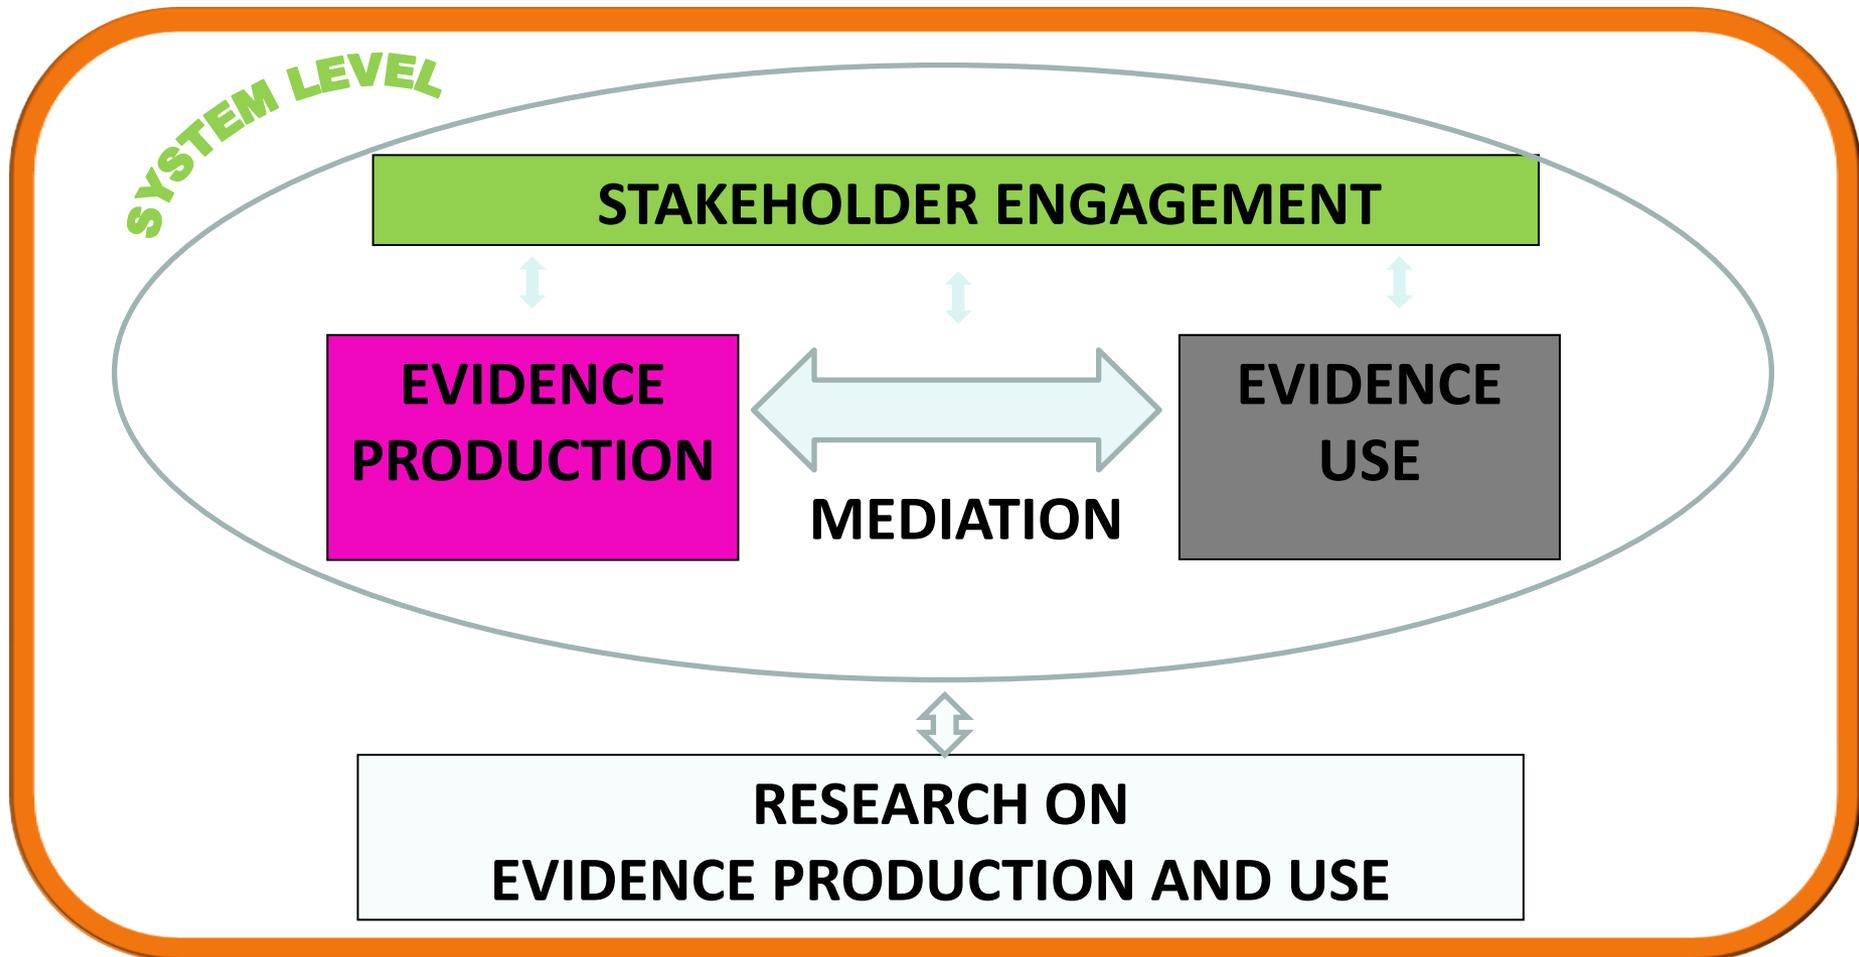

One year (2010-2011) knowledge brokerage initiative

Funded by the European Commission Directorate-General for Education and Culture under the Lifelong Learning: 2020 strategy

Collaborative project involving 18 partners across Europe

Evidence-to-Use System

Mapping evidence-to-policy activity

- Identified 269 examples of activities linking research evidence with education policy in Europe (via web and literature search, ministries, partners);
- Collated and analysed examples of research-to-policy linking activities in education across Europe;
- Classified the type of activity and the mechanisms for achieving EIP*

building on the work of Best and Holmes (2010), Levin (2004), Nutley et al. (2007) and Walter et al. (2003)*

Classifying research-to-policy activities by type

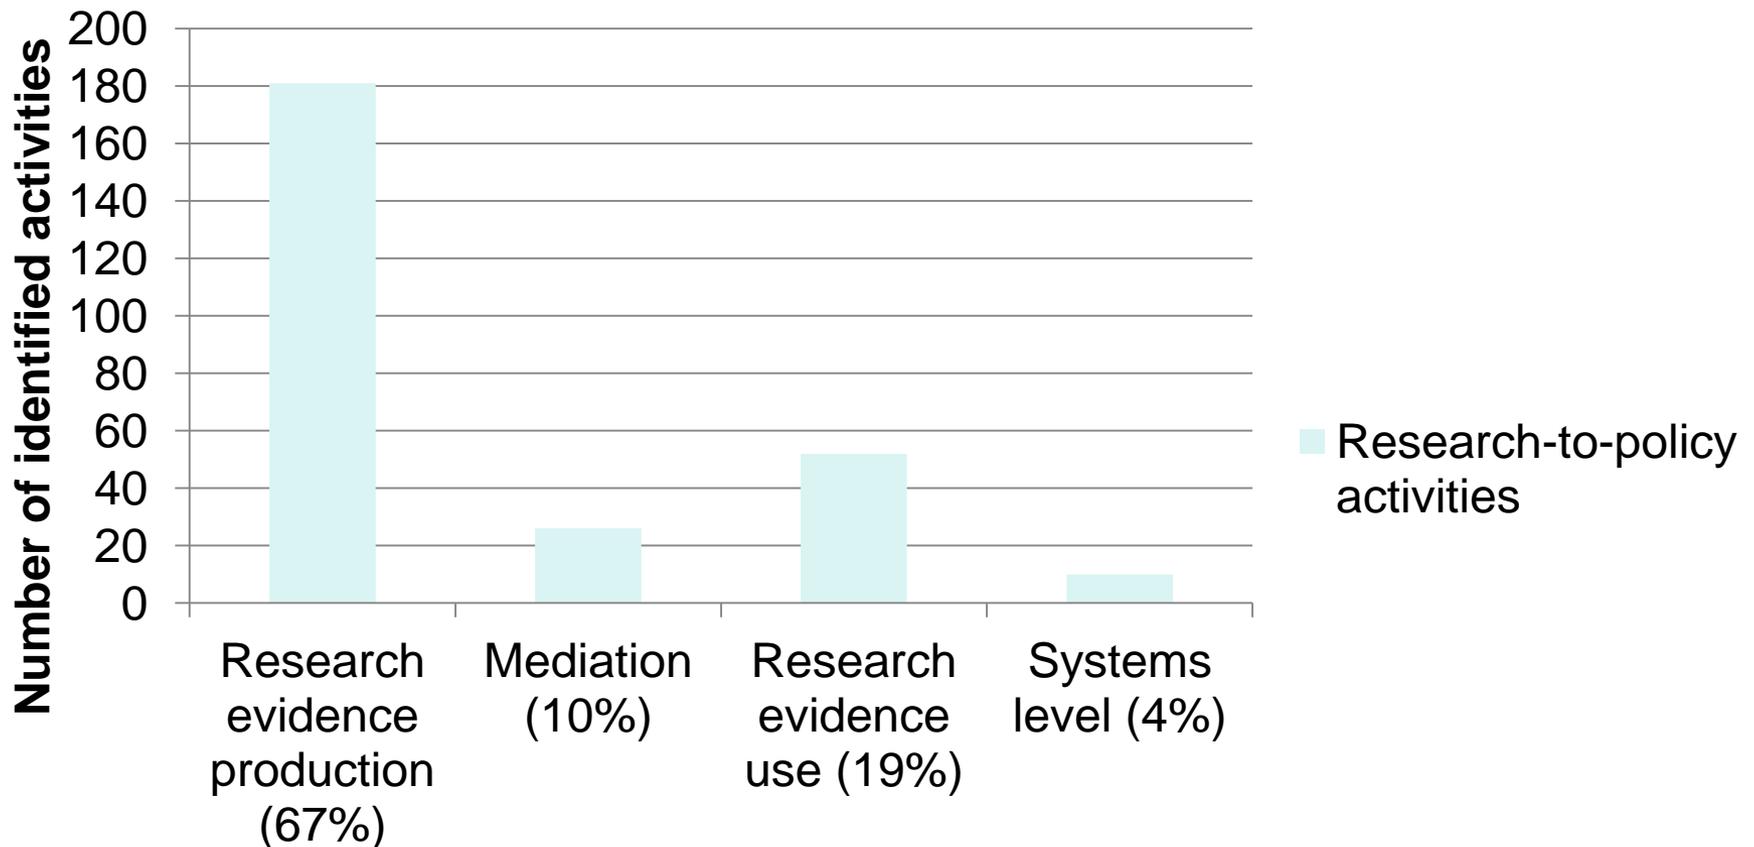

Typology of 27 types of activity in 8 main areas:

- Advisory
- Capacity building
- Information services
- Interpersonal networks and events
- Research outputs
- Research and analysis work
- Staffing arrangements
- Strategy, investment and development

Classifying evidence-to-policy activities by mechanism

- Accessibility
- Relevance
- Education
- Incentives /reinforcement
- Social influence / persuasion
- Facilitation
- Seek and/or interpret
- Interaction/collaboration
- System focus

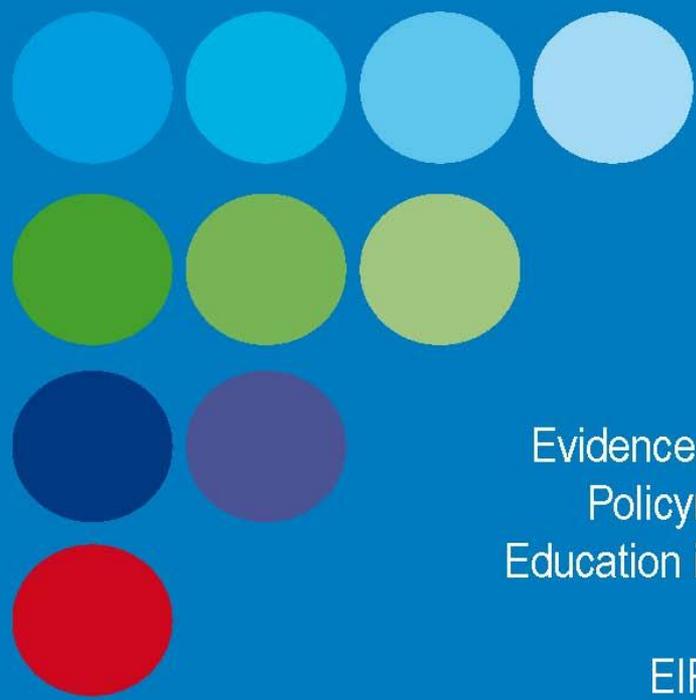

The focus of European linking activities within the research evidence production-to-use system

Location in the evidence production-to-use model

Recommendations

1. Enabling links between research evidence and policy
2. Increasing quality, relevance and availability of research for informing policy
3. Knowledge, awareness and skills capacity building in all parts of the research evidence production-to-use system
4. Policy decisions to develop evidence informed policy in education
5. Increasing capacity in research on research generation and use

Evidence Informed Policymaking in Education in Europe

EIPEE Final Project Report
